Annual General Meeting and Board Elections

When: 7 - 10 PM on June 20, 2006

Where: The Vendange Institute, 440 Albert Street, Suite C108, Ottawa, Ontario, K1R 5B5 (613) 562-7840

Cost: There is no cost for this event. The event is open to members only and advance registration is required.

Details:

The board of the Australian Wine Society of Ottawa will present its annual report to members followed by an informal wine tasting with appetizers after the AGM.

The AGM is your chance to give us your opinions and comments, help us design next year's event program and taste some interesting wines.

The meeting will also include nominations and elections for vacant board positions. There are 3 positions open.

AWS Board members are volunteers who provide their time and skills to help run the organization and the events. More information available online.

If you would like to volunteer to be on the board or nominate someone else, please do so by sending an email to info@awsottawa.com with the details.

Check out Ottawa's Vendange Institute. Vendange is the "first and only Wine School in Ottawa providing WSET courses leading to internationally recognized qualifications".

To register please reserve your space by emailing
